

Section _____

Taxation Guide

The guidelines recommended below are simply that and do not constitute financial advice in any way whatsoever. K-9 Country Inn Working Service Dogs strongly recommends that you speak with a qualified accountant before submitting your tax deductions. Tax deductions for Service dogs are claimed under medical expenses.

Protocols

- Most accountants do not want your receipt. They will require totals only. You need to keep receipts for your records as proof of expenses
- You probably will be audited, and you need to have the following
 - Letter from Doctor
 - Letter from the K-9 Country Inn Working Service Dogs
 - T2201 CRA Certificate the Doctor must complete
 - The T2201 gives a list of Doctors that can complete the form
 - Take the form to the Doctor that is treating your specific disability
 - You must use your dog 90% of the time use of your dog to qualify
- CRA will ask for proof of expenses photocopy and send. Do not send originals
- They must match the log entries

Benefits

- Do you have any benefits that cover service dog expenses? if yes, you must list and the amount paid by those benefits
- Need a letter stating your benefits don't cover Service Dog expenses

What can be claimed

1. Purchase of dog

2. Vet bills

- Medications
- Surgeries
- Checkups
- Meds
- Cones
- PJ 's

3. Equipment for your dog

- Vests
- Boots
- Crates
- Beds
- Patches for vest
- Grooming brushes toys
- Potty bells
- Equipment for training
- Leashes
- Longlines
- Collars

4. Food

- Kibble
- Treats
- Pocket pills

5. Grooming

- You do it
- Professional groomer
- Grooming tools
- Shampoo
- Sprays
- Nail clippers
- Towels

6. Training

- Classes K-9 country Inn Working Service Dogs receipts provided

7. PA training expenses

- Lunches
- Tickets
- Parking
- Hospital parking

8. Vehicle expenses or Km payout approximately 55/58 cents per KM

- Keep track of how many Km to training and back
- PA there and back
- Vet Km
- Pick up your puppy KM
- Pick up someone to go to training

A large, faded watermark of the K-9 Country Inn logo is centered on the page. It features the stylized 'K9' with paw prints, the text 'Country Inn' in script, and the tagline 'Where dogs and humans come to play!' below it.

Country Inn

Where dogs and humans come to play!

www.k-9countryinn.com